

Exodus Engineering (Luke Moerke)

I strongly support the conversion of the TransAlta coal plant to natural gas. Our state has come out against cheap and efficient fuels for households, such as natural gas, but if the electric generating plant could be converted from coal to natural gas, it would mean a lot for our community. This conversion means continued electricity availability and continued jobs for the future. Please allow this transition to occur for the betterment of the community.