

CLARK NICHOLSON

Converting from coal to gas, another fossil fuel, makes no sense. Burning fossil fuels of any kind spews poisonous gases into the atmosphere, destroying our beautiful planet for generations to come. Please, install a clean battery system like California and Australia are doing with great success. If the neighbors are worried about battery fires, use nonflammable sodium-ion batteries.