

Anonymous

Please shut the plant down. The last thing we need right now is more fossil fuels in our environment. Replacing coal with another fossil fuel doesn't make global warming less impactful, and it doesn't slow it down. Replacing it with clean and renewable energy would be better, but since the plant itself barely generates energy, it would be safer to shut it down.