

Shane Emerson

I am opposed to this fee. Natural gas is already one of our cleaner forms of fuel.

This fee upped my gas bill by 62.5% this bill. Climate acts should be for the dirtier forms of energy, and ultimately that can include things like electric cars. Battery manufacturing is a dirty industry, and not as clean as most of the public thinks.