

Edward Mann

I want to see an economic analysis showing how expanding the carbon market will affect value of forest offsets. Creating an ecological value to forests is our best opportunity to rebuild these rural economies. Rural counties across this state and this country have been stripped of our assets, value and resources and abandoned by investment capital. This Cap & Invest program has to be more than just another revenue stream for the state.