

Snohomish PUD

We own and operate fewer than 25 electric vehicle chargers. The proposed verification and validation protocol in the draft rulemaking is excessive and burdensome for a small number of chargers. Furthermore, the cost of verification compliance would far exceed the value of credits earned and, if adopted, could prohibit participants from claiming commercial EVSE credits.