

Rachel Roberts

I encourage Ecology to adopt the proposed amendments. Not only should we do everything we can to fight climate change, but I live in a neighborhood bordered by state highways on two sides and our air quality suffers as a result. Cleaner trucks would help us breathe better, especially when we have these drought periods and it doesn't rain enough.