

Carolyn Boatsman

I would like you to maintain our rules and deadlines for clean trucks rather than cave into the pressure to abandon our efforts. This is simple. We are destroying the climate. We are destroying ourselves. It will cost money to stop the destruction since it is always cheaper to pollute and sacrifice lives. Let the money be spent. Let the costs distribute themselves amongst our businesses and our consumers and our taxpayers. Make progress. Get re-elected. Show spine.