

Margaret Watt

Hello~

Washington is not California! Since California is a disaster, it puzzles me as to why our politicians would want to follow California's laws/mandates. You serve Washingtonians; please remember that. If we wanted to follow California laws, we'd live in California, not here. Do NOT follow California's trucking emissions rules! We don't need to incorporate California's mess in Washington State.

Thank you,

M. Watt