

Don Fowler

Washington State is already the 3rd highest tax state (i.e., gas, sales, property, school, cost of living, local, etc.). Decouple from California's radical emissions mandates and pursue smarter, homegrown policies that ease cost-of-living challenges Washington families are facing. Soon or later the voters are going to wake up get rid of all you spend happy bureaucrats.