

Tina Vidrine

With the largest tax bill getting passed in Washington making semi trucks EV is ridiculous. Furthermore no company is gonna buy them they cost too much. It is only the west Coast requiring it. This will make products more expensive in this State. People are already struggling with higher gas prices. Do something right for the citizens be better than the Governor and Democrats.