

AJ Anonymous

Washington is not California. Decouple from California's radical emissions policies and pursue smarter homegrown policies that ease cost of living challenges Washington families face. Please stop penalizing Washington families for the bad policies. Please do the right thing