

Ellen Storm

I live near the Tacoma industrial tideflats with diesel exhaust being our worst pollutant and really a threat to our health and quality of life. Despite the opposition from the other Washington we must continue to reduce small particulate pollution