

Timothy Parker

We live Washington, not California. Let California keep their rules& leave ours alone. We don't need to follow theirs & get into the same shape that they are in. California has big budget deficit & we don't need that in our state.