

Stefanie Susol

As a small business owner we struggle to keep up with the rising cost of fuel, insurance rates doubling over the last 3 years taking up over 10% of our gross income with no claims in 35 years of business, truck & equipment costs almost doubling in the last 5 years. Its going to be either be close doors or move out of State to continue on with added costs for the equipment required for trucking in Washington if this is implemented.