

Ray Harrison

These programs are not accomplishing any significant changes. New vehicle designs are coming online without additional stimulus. Additional taxes only contribute to increased costs to the already strapped Washington State population.