

Dennis Brand

Please stop this crazy emission control you think will make us healthier. It will not make any real and noticeable difference for our population. It is a complete money grab by this administration. Stop the madness and our state will be better off.