

Amber Timmerman

Please separate Washington state from another state's rule making processes. This is fundamentally an issue of state's rights, and Washington citizens deserve to have a representative voice in our own state regulations.