

Earl Williams

Things will never change until Washington State starts voting the Democrats out. When the people in in King county gets tired of the high taxes and all the destruction in Seattle maybe they will start changing their votes. Other wise it stay the same.