

Michael Brinkley

Enough already! Please decouple take what California does out of the equation. These standards exceed the norm and are helping to ruin Washington as a stable business and commercial development partner. I have lived here for almost 21 years, moving from Oregon in 2004. Not long ago Washington was #6 in states to do business in, now we're #46.