

Lois Poppema

Please don't follow any of California's insane policies that drive prices higher with no benefit to any citizens. Pursuing "clean energy" has been - ironically - a smokescreen for other agendas.

These policies seem intended to drive people away from the 3 West Coast States; they are succeeding in accomplishing that objective. Who benefits from that exodus? Other states! They gain citizens who still care about sane government.