

Rod Sebers

Please do not adopt the rules you are considering. The people of Washington need relief from the constant tax increases from all parts of government. This includes your rules that will cost us dearly. Let the FREE market work without your intervention mandating changes that really do not work.