

climate action of southwest WA (Don Steinke)

As far as I know, our legislature has not given authority to any of our regional clean air agencies to use the Indirect Source Rule (from the Clean Air Act) to regulate pollution magnets such as warehouses. Jointly with the Governor, ask the legislature to give them that authority. For example, The California legislature has given the South Coast Air Quality Management District the authority to do that.