

David Robison

I support ZEVergreen because I care about human and environmental health. ICE vehicle exhaust contains noxious substances that hurt us now and contribute to climate change. We suffer and Washington's cherished flora and fauna suffer. EVs, especially with our low-carbon grid, make much better sense all around.