

Helen Rector

It is difficult to get between counties without changing buses. Make bus services to ferries and seatac easier to arrange. This saves individually driven cars and parking. Similarly remove restrictions on boat shuttles. For instance, there is no public ferry or boat shuttle between ports like port townsend and the islands. All this is backwards and wasteful of fuel and time. Too many old stupid regulations. Waste!