

Tom Craighead

Please do all you can to protect the progress our state has already made regarding clean transportation and cutting climate pollution. We must be prepared to strategically resist the federal government's efforts on behalf of the fossil fuel industry. Lock in your programs' funding, legal protections, staffing...! And do all you can to advertise, explain and celebrate your successes. Thank you!