

Kenneth Brown

I applaud the Governor's effort of affordability, but it is counterproductive. WA gas has one of the highest gas taxes of any state. As more people avail themselves of EV, the road tax revenue will decline. At the same time, why are we as a state still allowing the Tribes to keep any of the tax revenue they collect?