

Theresa Israel

Water is life! Every day throughout this country and around the world we see evidence of drought and the struggles people go through to access clean water.

I truly believe that fracking and other destructive measures do have an immense impact on OUR groundwater.

Please seriously consider these impacts.