

Steve Garnaas-Holmes

I am about to retire and we are thinking of moving to this area to be near our grandchildren. But I'm not willing to move into a place where there is fracking. Fracking has been repeatedly demonstrated to be destructive. Further, oil is a 19th-century technology. Do not invest more in this outdated industry. It's time to move on. Please do not allow hydraulic fracturing in this area.