

Linda Zak

Water is Life. Protecting the purity of our fresh water is of ultimate importance. By allowing fracking near our rivers, we are inviting the polluting of our waterways by the release of fracking wastewater, whether deliberately or inadvertently.

I am fully in support of restrictions on fracking anywhere near the Delaware River basin.