

Stacey Altemus

I support no fracturing activity in our Delaware river. Moreover, the resources and water should not be used to support such activities elsewhere. The wellness of our local environment matters to me and my family. Thanks