

David Trabert

I am against Fracking and its related wastewater disposal anywhere in the state of Pennsylvania because it poses significant threats to air, water, health, public safety and seismic stability. We should take a lesson from the states of Vermont & New York which have banned fracking altogether for the same reasons.