

Mark Bond

Fracking has proven to be dangerous to the environment and detrimental to our precious water supply. That's on a GOOD Day. And still there are gas companies out there like CABOT who cut corners on safety every chance they get. It's simply a gamble that our region can't afford to make.