

kathryn nocerino

Any resumption of fracking or fracking-related activities in and around the Delaware Watershed should be permanently banned. This watershed supplies the nation's largest metropolitan area, an area full of fighting-mad VOTERS. Maryland has already done the right thing by banning fracking permanently. Why aren't you doing the right thing as well?