

Diane Beeny

I am deeply concerned about the impacts of hydraulic fracturing upon our water, soil, air quality, public health and wildlife and about the toxic environmental legacy it imposes and well as increasing greenhouse gases that further escalate planetary climate chaos.