

Father Tom Johnson-Medland

We cannot allow the use of the Delaware Watershed and the Basin for any type of invasive activity. FRACKING is a huge nightmare, it is proven to be a contaminant and the evidence for failure of lines is too high. We could never recover the water way once we injure its current state.