

glenn molusky

The simple facts are we the landowners have a right to decide what is to be done with our property rights. We pay our taxes each year and to let a river commission dictate the rules for our property is unconstitutional and wrong. Lets have the laws of our land rule. When landowners in other counties can benefit from the law we should not be deprived because of the river corridor and a handful of non-landowners.