

Steve Troyanovich

There needs to be a complete and permanent termination of all Hydraulic Fracturing activities since there has been NO credible research that these activities will safeguard future environmental issues. Additionally, there is absolutely no critical need for such precarious activities.