

Harry Lawton

I protest any fracking anywhere near the precious water basin of the Delaware river (any fracking anywhere actually). The battle is for clean water against any consideration of profits or development.

Protect this bay against any expansion of profit driven fossil fuel drilling.

The population demands it.