

al chazin

As a New Yorker, I worked to remove Fracking from our state a few years back. The carcinogenic toxins like toluene, eventually end up in people's drinking water and in the air we breathe! I hope you find the courage over profits to resist fracking!