

Neil Samuels

Please preserve the Delaware as a totally frack-free region. Please don't pull essential water from the area for fracking use elsewhere and please don't discharge water used in fracking back into our ecosystem in any manner. Water is the ultimate resource for sustaining life and health. The benefits of fracking do not outweigh the necessity of maintaining plentiful clean water for our local industry, agriculture, consumption, and recreation. Thank you.