

Amy Lauren

Do not drill the Delaware River! We've seen the costly and permanent environmental damage that this kind of drilling can lead to. Residents are deeply concerned and angered over the potential fracking happening in their backyards. This is our home and we should be protecting it.