

Dave Stracke

The Delaware watershed is so important to this region. I feel very strongly that no fracking or discharging of water used in fracking should occur in the Delaware watershed. We need to keep this water and this area as pristine as possible.