

Doris Schiller

For the benefit of our citizens, present and future, hydraulic fracking and all related activities should be banned. Our water, land and air should be kept as pristine as possible.
We, the people, have the right to clean air, pure water, and the preservation of our environment.