

Emily Duke

I object to importing toxic fracturing water and exporting fresh water from the Delaware River. These actions endanger both the citizens and their drinking water, as well as the ecosystem that is home to Delaware River Basin wildlife.