

Alison Nistad

Fracking is dangerous to water tables and, once water is contaminated, it cannot be reversed. Why make a destructive plan for energy when solar and/or wind is possible and relatively safe?