

Jonathan Wind

I oppose any permitting of fracking operations in the Delaware River Basin and surrounding territories. Fracking is destructive to many facets of our environment, both above and below ground. We need to curtail our dependence on fossil fuels and invest in newer clean technology.