

James Rennie

I object to the new proposal that would allow for toxic waste to be imported into the Delaware watershed for disposal as well as allowing the export of millions of gallons of water per day from the river. The Pa Constitution guarantees the right to pure water. These proposed actions would jeopardize that right.