

Frances Kerwin

I resent very much the idea that large corporations want to poison our land and water to enrich themselves. Land and water can not be replaced, once ruined.

The Delaware River Basin is a vital component of the ecology of this whole area.

No one owns public waterway except THE PUBLIC.

Fracking is a horror. It is dangerous, destructive and can not be controlled.

IT MUST NOT be allowed.