

Ronald Feldman

Abundant scientific evidence exists to document the costly problems due to fracking and the disposal of chemicals and water employed in fracking.

The vast majority of Pennsylvania residents favor strict restrictions upon fracking and, to the extent possible, the prohibition of fracking.

It is high time for governmental agencies to protect our environment and our citizens by imposing pertinent restrictions. I urge you to do so.